Thanks to our partnership with Don Jamieson of That Metal Show and VH1 Classic, we were able to have this drum head autographed by some of the guests on Season 10 of That Metal Show. If you go to our Facebook page, you will see we are running a competition to see who can name 5 of the artists...the first three people to email us the names, will win an autographed copy of Solitary, the solo release from our featured artist partner, Don Dokken!
